London Strawberry Festival Royalty: Terms and Conditions of Participation

Statement of Representation Prospective contestants and their families should be aware that members of the London Strawberry Royalty serve as high-profile ambassadors for the London Strawberry Festival. By participating in this competition, you agree to fulfill the role of an active and visible representative of our organization and community. Please be advised that all Royalty guidelines and contractual obligations are non-negotiable. We require all contestants and legal guardians to review these documents thoroughly prior to the competition.

Chaperone and Team Integration We recognize that this is a significant milestone for families. Parents and guardians play an essential role as chaperones, providing transportation and support during the various events throughout the year. However, it is a core requirement of the program that all Royalty members—regardless of age—demonstrate the independence and social maturity necessary to bond with their fellow court members and function as a cohesive team.

Commitment and Compliance Participation in the London Strawberry Festival Royalty program is entirely voluntary. However, upon selection, members are expected to maintain a high level of commitment. Full compliance with all program rules, behavioral expectations, and scheduled appearances is mandatory for the duration of the term.

Eligibility Requirements To be eligible for competition, contestants must meet the following criteria:

- Residency: Must be a resident of Madison County, attend a Madison County school, or reside within one of the following approved counties: Union, Franklin, Pickaway, Fayette, Greene, Clark, Champaign, Logan, Hardin, Shelby, Miami, Montgomery, Warren, Clinton, Highland, Ross, Fairfield, Licking, Delaware, or Marion.
- Age Divisions: Contestants will compete in the age division corresponding to their age as of June 1 of the current calendar year.
- Male Contestants: If any boys above the age of 4 years old would like to compete please contact the royalty director.
